Lesson 1 · Passphrases you can remember

Password power

Make it long, random and secret

Name _____
Class _____
Date _____

Work with a partner. Read each item and decide.

1 Strong or weak? Tick one box for each password.

	Hard to guess	Easy to guess
a Musa2012	☐	☐
b pencil hippo volcano	☐	☐
c 12345678	☐	☐
d P@ssw0rd	☐	☐
e Your football team's name	☐	☐
f drum ladder tomato	☐	☐
g Your date of birth	☐	☐
h cloud sandal ostrich	☐	☐

2 True or false? Circle T for true or F for false.

	True	False
a A passphrase of three random words can be easy to remember.	☐	☐
b You should tell a friend your password in case you forget it.	☐	☐
c A real bank won't ask you to read out a code sent to your phone.	☐	☐
d One password for everything is safe if it is long.	☐	☐
e Your email password should be different from all the others.	☐	☐

3 Picture it Draw 3 random things in one funny picture: a practice passphrase.

Draw here

_____
_____
_____

Challenge

Musa uses the same password for his email and his games. A games website is hacked. What could happen next, and what should he do?